

TINA LUNSON

Tina Lunson is the former administrative director and senior consultant to the Vilnius Program in Yiddish Language and Literature at Vilnius University in Lithuania.

She worked with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum as an expert consultant, researcher, and translator for several exhibitions, including “The Hidden History of the Kovno Ghetto,” and served as a historical consultant and on-site guide for two Holocaust-era film productions in Lithuania.

Tina received her Master of Arts in Jewish History from Baltimore Hebrew University and has completed post-graduate work at Columbia University in Yiddish Literature.

Her English translations of works in Yiddish include Jacob Dinezon’s Zikhroynes un bilder: shtetl, kinderyorn, shraybers (Memories and Scenes: Shtetl, Childhood Writers) (www.jewishstorytellerpress/memories) and Ha’neahovim vha’neimim, oder Der shvartser yungermantshik (The Beloved and Pleasant, or The Dark Young Man), yiskerbikher (Holocaust memorial books), and commissioned translations of published works, manuscripts, personal correspondence, and diaries. She lives in Takoma Park, Maryland.
